GARRY HERMANN AGAIN.

Ten thousand people yelled themselves hoarse and reveled in excitement and general enjoyment at Harlem Saturday. Never in the history of the popular west side course has there been a more sensational day's racing.

There were close finishes, falls, winning by long shots and, in fact, everything that goes with the racing game to make it what it is, "the sport of kings."

Secretary Nathanson spread himself to make Saturday's racing attractive, and to say that he succeeded would hardly be giving him his just dues. There were the Youngster Stakes, at five furlongs, with a value of $1,800, which brought to the post three of the speediest two-year-olds in the western country, and also an owners' handicap, at one mile, as the principal features. Besides these two star attractions there were four other well drawn up condition events, and each furnished a sensation in one way or another.

Just to show how healthy the racing at Harlem is now, twenty-nine regular bookmakers drew in and they were kept extremely busy during the entire afternoon and must have "gathered" too, as only two favorites, both at odds on, scored.

Although only Garry Hermann, Silverdale and Mauga started for The Youngster Stakes it furnished an exceptionally good contest and fully demonstrated Garry Hermann's superiority over Silverdale. The former had a bad attack of colic early Saturday morning, but came around all right by noon, and trainer Charley Hughes, out of respect to the Harlem Association, to keep the race from being a failure, concluded to start him, but advised the colt's owner and all of his friends not to bet on him.

Garry Hermann, notwithstanding all rumors, was made a staunch favorite and at the prohibitive price of 1 to 3 was well backed by the public. The game son of Esher-Silk Gown may not have been at his best, but nevertheless he ran a grand race, and one that will be remembered by those who had the pleasure of seeing it, winning by a short head after a battle royal through the stretch with Silverdale.

What makes Garry Hermann's performance such a remarkable one is the fact that he had a speedy filly in Mauga to contend with in the first part of the race, which he did, and then stalled off a rush made by a high class youngster.

The veteran but skilful jockey, Patsy McDermott, who has had few opportunities in the west demonstrated to the doubtful ones that he has not lost his knack of riding by his excellent handling of Tom Barrett's Barrack in the last race. Barrack is a colt that requires a strong rider, being a loafer, but is as game as a pebble and McDermott is just the kind of a jockey to ride such a horse. In the first place, "Patsy" has a knowledge of pace, then again knows the nearest way around the course, and this, combined with many years of experience should, if it don't, make him a useful man on any horse that is to race at a mile or over. Barrack was backed by his owners and their friends but they were not the only ones that cheered McDermott on to victory, for seemingly everyone was glad to see the once famous jockey getting into form again and encouraged him royally.

Four horses, Martha Fox, Leandro, Microscope and Glonoine, fell with their jockeys, R. Narvaez, E. Ross, W. Waldo and Ruiz, on the first turn in the second race, and for a time it was feared that all four boys had been fatally injured, but after the dust cleared away and the doctors got a chance to go to work it was given out that no one was fatally hurt, but Narvaez, W. Waldo and Ruiz each had broken bones, while Ross escaped with a severe shaking up. Papa Harry, sometimes as good as 100 to 1, won the second race with ease.

Boland outfinished Flick and Buchanan in the first event and landed Teucer, a 40 to 1 chance, a winner by a nose from O'Connell and St. Cuthbert. The latter was roughly treated in the race and may have been the best.

Bannockburn, perhaps the best horse in training in the west, lazily beat All Gold and Great Bend in the Owners' Handicap, incidentally winning a big bet for his popular owner, Barney Schreiber.

Rio de Alter was much the best of the two-year-olds. He was in the fifth event, and after Caywood on Fred Hessig got through trying to put him over the fence into the infield he was far back in the ruck, but by displaying a smart turn of speed and rare gameness managed to wind up in third place. Caywood tried to out-talk the judges and everyone else after the race, declaring he was never near Rio de Alter, but, nevertheless, he drew a fine of $50, which he deserved.

Barrack was worked out a mile and five-sixteenths after his race in 2:13 3/4.

H. B. Goodrich, receiver in the Hopkins vs. Doss litigation, will sell in the paddock at the Harlem race track, Monday, June 18, at 1 o'clock sharp, the following horses: Harry Gaines, b. h. 5, by Harry O'Fallon-Lida Gaines; Jim McGowan, b. g. 3, by Jils Johnson-Venus III., and Richey, b. g. 3, by Bersan-Freddie.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Taral rode at Fort Erie Tuesday, and after his first mount he thought the boys riding on the Canadian circuit were soft things because they went wide on the turns. At his next essay Taral started to go through one of these openings, but the lads were not as soft as they looked. They promptly pulled over to the rail and nearly sent "the Dutchman" over the fence. Now Taral thinks they ride more like a band of Apache Indians than clever jockeys. Caruthers & Shields were so pleased at Taral's handling of Advance Guard in the Canadian Derby that they have made him an offer to pilot the colt in the American Derby, which will be run at Washington Park June 23. Taral will probably accept, as Sidney Lucas, whom he was to ride, made a miserable showing in the Canadian event.

During the last week's racing at Newport Manager Fowler made the statement that if the racing continued good at the Campbell County track he would increase the purses for the next meeting. Mr. Fowler has carried out his promise. All purses at the meeting which opens on Monday next will be worth $225 to the winner. The second horse will receive $35 and the third $15. In making the purses $225 to the winner the Newport track virtually gives as much to the owner of the first horse as at other tracks where the purses are $300. The new arrangement will no doubt meet with the approval of all horsemen racing at the local tracks, and will also go a long way toward bringing horses here from other tracks. The management of the track deserves credit for its liberality and deserves success for its earnest efforts to furnish high-class racing for the local turf patrons.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Compass was crowded into the fence at the start and Hothersall had his leg broken.

Overweights—Montreal, 41 pounds; William Gerst, 2; Dr. Moore, 2.
Tasker, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Egyptian Prince, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Fleche d'Or, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. m. by Midlothian—Half Sister.

Went to post at 5:41. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Sister Alice was well handled and ran to her best form. Ocie Brooks tired at the end after showing much speed and Sister Alice was drawing away. Jucoma finished strongly. Matoaka ran three-sixteenths of a mile at full speed to a false start. The odds probably frightened Alex.

Winner—B. h. by Rayon d'Or—Glen Belle.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 16 minutes. Start good. The first three were lapped on one another and driving to the limit. Boland rode a cracking good race and an extra good finish. Teucer is game and stood a drive from the three-eighth post home. Only a bad ride beat O'Connell. Flick wasted considerable time interfering with St. Cuthbert and then wobbled all over O'Connell's back when the pinch came. The old horse showed all his well known speed and was entitled to victory. St. Cuthbert was hemmed in the first part of the race, but came fast at a cracking good race. Abe Furst was badly outrun in the first part of the race, but came fast at the end. Miss Shanley ran a good, honest race. Alpaca off in the rear division never showed any speed. Peace flattered her backers for about three furlongs and then faded away.

Scratched—18466 Vain, 99; 18410 Brisk, 107; 18497 Pauline J., 99; 18352 John A. Morris, 109; Judge Pettus, 105; 14213 Pope Leo, 109; 17924 Man of Honor, 100; 18289 De Blaise, 105.

Winner—B. g. by Little Minch—Sunshine.
Went to post at 3:00. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second and third were doing their best. Papa Harry took the longest route, had clear sailing and won like a stake horse. Julius Caesar seemed to be winning an eighth from home, but weakened under pressure at the end and barely lasted long enough to get second place. Donation ran the best race of the lot and had been able to get through in the stretch could not have lost. Mark this horse for early action over a distance of ground. Satan showed the most speed, but weakened badly in the stretch. Defender II. was sharply interfered with on the stretch turn. Forbush stopped on the far turn, then came again in the stretch. It was an ugly mix-up on the first turn, and jockeys Ruiz, Narvaez and W. Waldo are quite badly hurt. Ross escaped with a severe shaking up. Microscope was the cause of the accident and was the first horse to fall.

Overweights—Martha Fox, 24 pounds; Little Reggie, 24; Glonoine, 24.
Papa Harry, place, 20 to 1; show, 10 to 1. Julius Caesar, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Donation, show, 8 to 5.

Winner—Br. h. by Hayden Edwards—Bettie Blaise.
Went to post at 3:35. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won very easily; second and third were fully extended. Bannockburn is truly a grand race horse and seems to be in superb form at present. He simply loafed along under a stout pull all the way and was never fully extended. All Gold did his best and ran a high-class race, but is nowhere near as good a horse as is Bannockburn. Great Bend took the shortest route and ran well as far as he went, but in the last furlong he tired. Cambrian made a quick, sharp move toward the front on the far turn and for an instant appeared to have a chance, but was not in it when the real contention came. The Elector closed an enormous gap from the head of the stretch home.

Bannockburn, place, out. All Gold, place, evens; show, out. Great Bend, place, 2 to 1; show, out.

Went to post at 4:00. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a terrific drive of two; third eased up. Garry Hermann is a phenomenal colt. He raced with and made Mauga quit in going the first half and then displayed rare gameness in stalling off Silverdale's rush at the end. Seldom is such a game youngster as Garry Hermann seen. Silverdale ran the best race of his career and was handsomely ridden by Caywood, who availed the early pace and put up a powerful finish when the pinch came. Mauga did finely as far as she went and is a good filly.

Winner—Ch. c. by Faust—Bothnia.
Went to post at 4:35. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second handily. Third, fourth and fifth driving to the limit. Harry Herendeen was lucky, well ridden and won like a good colt. If foul riding counts for anything Fred Hessig should have won off by himself. Caywood broke with him from the outside and deliberately cut across the track interfering with everything within reach. This naturally caused a sharp mix-up in which Rio de Altar was badly interfered with. But for this the latter could not have lost and is a cracking good youngster. Lillie Pantland came like a flash in the final furlong. Rega seemed dangerous on the turn for home but weakened under pressure. The same can be said of Tenny Belle. St. Bluff had bad luck in the race. Wilson snatched Gibson Girl up at the start when Caywood and Fred Hessig came cutting across the track. Caywood was fined $50 for his rough work.

Scratched—18443 Hanswurst, 99; 18465 Boomerack, 103; Glove, 100; 18494 Sannazaro, 103; 18524 Peaches, 96; 18527 Anxious, 104; 18527 Floranthé, 104.

Went to post at 5:10. Off at the first break to a good start. The first two had a battle royal, as did the third and fourth horses. Barrack is a good, game colt and ran a smashing good race. He was well handled by the veteran Pat McDermott, who took the shortest route and put up a powerful finish. Walkenshaw was slightly interfered with on the far turn and this may have cost him the race. He closed stoutly through the stretch and Caywood rode for all he was worth. Clara Wooley was roughly treated throughout. Annowan ran a cracking good race after he got straightened out and finished with a rush. Remp ran a good race as far as he went and should win soon. Guess Me was sharply shut off when going down the backstretch. There was a lot of interfering in this race throughout.

Scratched—18556 The Bobby, 91; 18497 Refugee, 106; 18496 Kentucky Babe, 91; 6902 Myrtle S., 100; 18407 Rinaldo II., 110.

Winner—B. f. by Candemas—Duchess of Towers.

Went to post at 3:39. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Tower of Candles showed great speed and ran a fine race, but was tiring at the end. Tommy Atkins got off well and had no mischances. He finished fast and strongly under punishment. Contend was slow to begin, but closed fast. The weight was the only excuse for Irritable. Mintage showed no speed. Water Color was unlucky.

Scratched—18472 Malden, 122; 18583 Schoolmaster, 117.

Tower of Candles, place, 8 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Tommy Atkins, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Contend, show, 3 to 1. Water Color, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Irritable, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Islington—Songstress.

Went to post at 4:13. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second handily. Kinley Mack was well up throughout, ran a grand race and was well ridden, but he had to be hard ridden to stall off Ethelberg at the end. The latter had poor racing luck and was penned in on the fence all the way to the stretch and Maher could not get through in time. Ethelberg closed fast at the finish, but the distance was too short. Gulden ran a fine race. Imp and Jean Beraud were worn out by fast pacemaking. Herbert ran an improved race. The others were outclassed.

Scratched—18414 Prince McClurg, 117; 18357 Rafaello, 113; (18532) Petruccio, 102.

Kinley Mack, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Ethelberg, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Gulden, show, 5 to 1. Imp, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Charaxus—Young Grace.

Went to post at 4:42. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Charagrace was much the best, was well ridden and Barry could have won further off with him. Plato was tired out from making the pace. Trillion ran a good race, but tired near the finish.

Scratched—18417 Dr. Catlett, 173; (18533) The Bachelor, 165; (18469) Buella, 155; 18533 Filon d'Or, 140; 18533 Decameron, 138; 18469 Dr. Eichberg, 137; 15539 Concord, 135; 18218 Bob White, 130.

Winner—B. f. by Russell—Certamen.

Went to post at 5:12. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. The Amazon showed the most speed and had the others beaten before the stretch was reached. Nansen was outrun in the first part of the race, but closed fast and stood a hard drive well. Post Haste appeared dangerous in the last furlong, but tired. Peaceful ran a good race and was probably short.
